What do we do?

We help people with a learning disability and their family or carers to get good care when they go to hospital.

We can support you with:

- planned & emergency admissions
- outpatient appointments
- hospital discharge

2

We help hospital staff to understand the needs of people with learning disabilities.

We give specialist nursing guidance and advice.

We help people with a learning disability and hospital staff to make sure the decisions they make are person centred.

3

What do we use to help?

Hospital Passport

All patients should have a hospital passport. It contains all the important information needed for looking after that person.

You should bring your hospital passport with you at every visit for staff to look at.

You can get a hospital passport from www.brightpart.org or the learning disability liaison team.
